

Easter-Pentecost Year C (2025)

God, Your Glory We Have Seen In Your Son¹

Refrain: God, your glory we have seen in your Son, full of truth, full of heav'nly grace;
in Christ make us live, his love shine on our face,
and the nations shall see in us
the triumph you have won.

1. In the fields of this world his good news he has sown, and send us out to reap till the harvest is done. R.
2. In his love, like a fire that consumes, he passes by.
The flame has touched our lips; let us shout, "Here am I!" R.
3. He was broken for us, God-forsaken his cry, and still the bread he breaks: to ourselves we must die. R.
4. He has trampled the grapes of new life on his cross.
Now drink the cup and live; he has filled it for us. R.
5. He has founded a kingdom that none shall destroy;
the cornerstone is laid; go to work, build with joy! R.

JUBILEE OF MUSICAL ENSEMBLES

10-11 May 2025

The purpose of celebrating Musical Ensembles in this Year of Jubilee is to become aware of, and give thanks for, the contribution of those who use their musical skills to support and enhance the liturgy, and to serve the community in other ways.

PRAYER

O God, creator of all sound,
you have generously shared with humankind
the rich gift of music,
and, throughout history, have inspired many instrumentalists to play for the glory of your name.

Give us a spirit of gratitude for those who generously and skilfully uplift us with their instruments.
Through their music may they unite us and energize us to participate more fully in the liturgy.

This we ask through your Son, Jesus Christ, who heard the music of both synagogue and Temple while on earth, and who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

TEACHING

From earliest biblical times, and in different periods, a variety of musical instruments has been used to offer worship to God and sing God's praise (cf. 1 Chr.15:20-21). For example, in Psalm 150 we hear of an 'orchestra of praise':

*'Praise God with trumpet blasts, with lute and harp,
with timbrel and dance,
with strings and pipes.
Praise God with clashing cymbals.'*

And today, firstly, we celebrate the gifts of instrumentalists who help to lead and sustain the singing of the liturgical assembly, whose song is of the utmost importance in praising God. At appropriate times in the liturgy instrumentalists may play by themselves, offering beautiful sounds in praise of God. Music has great power to touch the human heart when words alone do not suffice. In the liturgy, there are times when instrumental music by itself, skilfully and sensitively played, can open up a beautiful space for the Spirit to work within us.

Used in such a way, music in the liturgy has a ministerial role – humbly serving the liturgy and the prayer of the assembly, drawing us into active participation through listening and uniting the faithful at a deep level.

But our instrumentalists serve the community in other ways as well. With their skill they can readily engage with youth, bring great joy to the elderly in nursing homes, promote participation in pre-Christmas or Anzac Day events etc. In so doing they spread the joy of the gospel with people of all faiths and none, engendering a spirit of hope in those gathered.

And so we give thanks today for the gift of our instrumental musicians, for the time and energy they put into preparation – often unknown and unseen – and for giving of their best to enable us all to take our part in the liturgy, and to spread the 'good news' of our faith through music.

TESTIMONY

"I have had a love of liturgy since I started as 'baby' altar server at 6 years of age, and a love for music since I began playing piano at 7, and then guitar in high school. In fact, I learnt the guitar by playing at Mass in my little Queensland country parish. For me, liturgy and music were inseparable. As I grew, and studied, and began composing music, I discovered how right I was when the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy stated that music is "a necessary or integral part of the sacred liturgy" (SC 112).

"Sunday by Sunday... we express and experience being unified as the Body of Christ through our active participation. And there is no better way to participate than by singing together. I am truly blessed that I am able to help facilitate this participation, this sense of unity, in my parish every Sunday, and, amazingly in many other parishes and schools through the songs I have composed. Liturgy and music have given me so much joy as a composer and liturgist and they have so much to offer every single member of every liturgical assembly. All you have to do is sing!"

Michael Mangan, Composer, Liturgist, Educator, Archdiocese of Brisbane.

Michael is also the Chair of the Australian Pastoral Musicians Network.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

- For composers, musicians and singers, that their gifts will help all Christians to sing the song of the Spirit that is in their hearts.
We pray to the Lord.
- That the community may encourage those with musical gifts to come forward to use them for the liturgy, and for the community.
We pray to the Lord.

A Liturgical Musician's Prayer

Gracious God,

We come before you with hearts full of gratitude for the gift of music, which enriches our worship and brings us closer to you.

We ask for your guidance as we strive for unity among musicians, choirs, and our parish community.

Help us to embrace our diverse talents and backgrounds, recognising that each voice contributes to the harmony of our mission.

May we work together with open hearts, fostering collaboration and support, so that our music may resonate as one body in Christ.

Lord, remove any barriers of misunderstanding or discord, and instil in us a spirit of patience and compassion.

Let our shared love for you be the foundation of our ministry, inspiring us to lift each other up and grow together in faith.

As we join our voices in praise, may we reflect your love and grace, drawing others closer to you through the beauty of our music.

We pray for peace in our hearts and unity in our purpose, that together we may serve our parish and glorify your name.

Amen.

Fanning the Flame of Hope

The account of Pentecost (cf. Acts 2:1-11) shows us two areas of the Holy Spirit's working in the Church: in us and in mission, with two characteristics: power and gentleness.

The Spirit's work in us is powerful, as symbolized by the signs of wind and fire, which are often associated with God's power in the Bible (cf. Ex 19:16-19). At the same time, the Paraclete's working in us is also gentle: powerful and gentle. The wind and the fire do not destroy or reduce to ashes whatever they touch: the one fills the house where the disciples are, and the other rests gently, in the form of flames, on the head of each. This gentleness, too, is a feature of God's way of acting, one that we frequently encounter in the Scriptures.

It is reassuring to see how the same sturdy, calloused hand that first breaks up the clods of our passions, then gently, after planting the seeds of virtue, "waters" them and "tends" them (cf. Sequence). He lovingly protects these virtues, so that they can grow stronger and so that, after the toil of combatting evil, we may taste the sweetness of mercy and communion with God. The Spirit is like this: powerful, giving us the power to overcome, and also gentle. We speak about the anointing of the Spirit, the Spirit anoints us for he is with us. As a beautiful prayer of the early Church says: "Let your gentleness, O Lord, and the fruits of your love, abide with me" (Odes of Solomon, 14:6).

The Holy Spirit, who descended upon the disciples and remained at their side, that is, as the "Paraclete", transformed their hearts and instilled in them "a serene courage which impelled them to pass on to others their experience of Jesus and the hope which motivated them" (SAINT JOHN PAUL II, Redemptoris Missio, 24).

This is also true of us, who received the Spirit in Baptism and Confirmation. From the "Upper Room" of this Basilica, like the Apostles, we too are being sent forth, particularly at the present time, to proclaim the Gospel to all. We are sent into the world "not only geographically but also beyond the frontiers of race and religion, for a truly universal mission" (Redemptoris Missio, 25). Thanks to the Spirit, we can and must do this with his own power and gentleness.

We tirelessly proclaim peace to those who desire war, proclaim forgiveness to those who seek revenge, we proclaim welcome and solidarity to those who bar their doors and erect barriers, we proclaim life to those who choose death, we proclaim respect to those who love to humiliate, insult and reject, we proclaim fidelity to those who would sever every bond, thereby confusing freedom with a bleak and empty individualism. Nor are we intimidated by hardship, derision or opposition, which, today as always, are never lacking in the apostolate (cf. Acts 4:1-31).

At the same time that we act with this power, our proclamation seeks to be gentle, welcoming to everyone. Let us not forget this: everyone, everyone, everyone. Let us not forget the parable of those who were invited to the feast but did not want to go: “Go therefore to the streets and bring everyone, everyone, everyone, both the bad and the good, everyone” (cf. Mt 22:9-10). The Spirit grants us the power to go forth and call everyone with gentleness, he grants us the gentleness to welcome everyone.

All of us, brothers and sisters, are in great need of hope, which is not optimism; no, it is something else. We need hope. Hope is depicted as an anchor, there at the shore, and in clinging to its rope, we move toward hope. We need hope, we need to lift our gaze to horizons of peace, fraternity, justice and solidarity. This alone is the way of life, there is no other. Naturally, it is not always easy; indeed, there are times that the path is winding and uphill. Yet we know that we are not alone, we have the certainty that, by the help of the Holy Spirit and by his gifts, we can walk together and make that path more and more inviting for others as well.

Brothers and sisters, let us renew our faith in the presence of the Comforter, who is at our side, and continue to pray:

*Come, Creator Spirit, enlighten our minds, fill our hearts with your grace, guide our steps,
grant your peace to our world.
Amen.*

LITURGY PLANNER FOR THE EASTER SEASON

(YEAR C) 2025

The Easter Season: the fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one “great Sunday” (Athanasius).

These above all others are the days for the singing of the Alleluia.

The Sundays of this season rank as Paschal Sundays...

Music Notes for the Easter Season

The Easter Season extends for 50 days until Pentecost. In Australia the 7th Sunday of Easter is now replaced by the Feast of the Ascension. The following week is Pentecost, then followed by Trinity Sunday (19 June) and The Body and Blood of Christ 26 June)

Penitential /Sprinkling Rite

Replace the Penitential Rite with the Sprinkling Rite all through the Easter Season and including Pentecost. You might select “All Creatures of Our God and King” as a gathering song and use Verse 3 for the Sprinkling.

Other choices:

CWB 286 a-c/ GA 348;

Baptized in Water (GA 179)

Blessing and Sprinkling (GA 87)

Cleanse Us Lord (GA 136 – this is very easy and can be sung like a chant)

Chant for the Rite of Sprinkling (E Marshall www.asonevoice.com.au)

Come to The River (CSS1)
 Come to The Water (AOV1/CWB2/EW)
 Flow River Flow (CPR3)
 River of Glory (GIC)
 Springs of Salvation (EW)
 Springs of Salvation (EW)
 Sprinkling Rite (GA 87, /AOV1)
 There Is A Well (SS)
 Water of Life (GA 176 / AOV)
 Water of Life (GA 176)

Responsorial Psalms

- Seasonal psalms: These can be used instead of the psalm of the day for any Sunday in the Easter Season. Alternatively, a sung Alleluia may replace the psalm response in any Sunday during the Easter Season.

Ps118: Let us rejoice / This is the day that the Lord has made (GA 70, 71/ CWB 289/FIWS)

Ps 66: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy (GA 44, 45 /CWB 308 / AOV2 / FIWS)

Alleluia psalm response: GA 142, CWB 293, 294, 295, 545

- Helpful Tips:
 1) If possible, use a Cantor for the verses of the Resp. Psalm and teach people the short response before Mass.
 2) If you cannot sing the whole Psalm, try just encouraging the singing of the response. Get your Lector to read the verses.

Easter Gospel Acclamations

- Celtic Alleluia with Easter vigil verses
- Plainchant Alleluia and add the appropriate verse to the music tone provided for the verse (see Gather Aust. 142 or Cath. Worship Book 545).
- Other settings including Eastertide Gospel Acclamation (Bernadette Farrell, OCP Publications)
- Alleluia no. 1 / Alleluia, Alleluia, give thanks to the Risen Lord (AOV1/GA/TIS)
- Halle, Halle, Hallelujah! Is a very catchy and easy to sing Gospel refrain (GA107 or AOV)

Prayers of Intercession

- Try using a different response for these prayers. If you do this, I suggest that you change the Reader's invitation from Lord, hear us to another version e.g. with Easter joy, we pray OR In hope we pray.... or similar.

Sung responses: Kyrie Eleison (Iona or Taizé versions – in CWB2-63/GA 149 or AOV1)
 Byzantine response (CWB2-64)
O God Hear Us / Through Our Lives (GA 150 & 151)

Include this response in your weekly Sunday Bulletin or put it up on your projection screen.
